The holidays are upon us – where did 2009 go??? I hope you are dancing, laughing and enjoying life. Be sure to use this SSDUSAGram to plan your holiday dancing – and I pray that your holidays be filled with all your heart’s desire – peace and joy and a celebration of this life, this time of the year!

I can guarantee you that you don’t want to miss Dance-A-Rama, 2010 in Alexandria, VA – it promises to be a festival to remember! I will be sending out a monthly DARagram, updating you on different helpful hints and bits of information to help prepare you for the big event!

I apologize for the September SSDUSAGram being late. We had the New Mexico Round Dance Festival this weekend in Albuquerque and I am on that committee.

Dancepartner.com – Check out this website that has 71,642 dancers listed, so if you are looking for a dance partner, this is the place to go!

SSDUSAGram, Single Square Dancers USA’s monthly electronic newsletter has one mission -- to get information about single friendly events all over the country out to the single dance world – literally! So make up your 2009 dance schedule up using the information provided below.

*****

The SSDUSAGram schedule for 2010 will be January, March, May, July, September, and November.

What this means for the representatives that send listings is that you will need to plan ahead for your special festivals/events to be listed.

If you would like to download the SSDUSAGram off the Internet, here’s the address:

<http://ssdusa.org/calendar.htm>

By clicking on the link, it downloads to your desktop immediately as a Word document. I will keep sending the SSDUSAGram to you in the e-mail format unless you let me know otherwise. Some housekeeping information for listings -- once you have sent me the information for an event, you don’t need to resend it again. I take it off when the event has passed. Just check to make sure the data is correct – mistakes happen.

If you are having trouble receiving this SSDUSAGram in this format, please let me know, and I can send it to you as a Word doc attachment.
